

Certificate IV in Irrigation

Details

TAFE NSW Course No: 19698

This course replaced: 919 - Irrigation

National Code: AHC41110

Description

This course is for people wanting to further develop their skills and knowledge in the irrigation industry for positions as specialists or team leaders.

You will learn about irrigation systems and schedules, and soil sampling, as well as selected skills areas which could include: merchandising and sales, workplace safety, business functions, and workplace practices.

Career Opportunities

Irrigation specialist

Nominal hours: 375

Entry requirements

There are no entry requirements for this qualification.

Pathways into the qualification

This qualification may be accessed by direct entry or by completion of the Irrigation Manager or Irrigation contractor Skill Sets.

TAFE NSW fee information

The TAFE NSW fee for 2012 for this course is $984, or if the course only runs for one semester, the TAFE NSW fee is $492.

The TAFE NSW fee is based on the level of qualification, however other fee arrangements apply for commercial courses (TAFE PLUS), international students, temporary visa holders, Australian Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students, students with a disability, apprentices, trainees and government benefit/allowance recipients. Other course related costs may apply.

If your course runs for more than one semester you may have the option to pay your TAFE NSW fee in two equal half-yearly payments - the first payment when you enrol.

For more information on TAFE NSW fees, fee exemptions, fee concessions and other fee arrangements that may apply, contact your local campus.

Course Locations

The course offering status below is current at the time of viewing. A course offering status may change at any time based on demand or additional places becoming available.

TAFE NSW fees apply to this course offered at the following locations. Contact the campus for enrolment details.

Location	Attendance modes *	Starting	Status 	Info Session
Richmond	Part Time Day	Jan-Jun 2012	Available	-

Key to Attendance modes

Full Time- Enrolments with 540 or more total Annual Student Hours (ASH) in a given course. This represents a weekly study attendance of between 15 and 30 hours.

Note: For students to be eligible for Centrelink benefits, the full time study load will be calculated on 16 hours per week. To obtain a Travel Concession pass, a full time student load of 20 hours per week will be required.

Flexible Delivery- This attendance allows for learning and assessment in a variety of modes. This may include on campus, off campus, distance learning, online learning and combinations of any of these.

Part Time Day- A weekly daytime study attendance of less than 12 hours. This study pattern may include attendance on weekends.

Part Time Evening- A weekly study attendance of less than 12 hours. This study pattern may include classes starting from midday through to the evening.

*Key to Status

Available- There may be places available in this course offering. Contact the campus.

Proposed- This course offering will run only if there are enough resources and demand. Click on 'Make an Enquiry' to register your interest.

Full- This course offering is running, but there are no places available.

Withdrawn- All TAFE NSW courses run only if there are enough resources or demand. This course offering has been withdrawn at the location and in the specified attendance mode.

Key to Info Session

Y- For this campus you may have to attend an information session prior to enrolment. Contact the campus for more details.

Course contents

Each course is made up of different core or elective units/modules - for listings see www.tafensw.edu.au. The availability of elective units/modules varies from campus to campus.

Contact information

For more information contact your local campus or the TAFE NSW Information Centre on 131 601 or make an online enquiry at www.tafensw.edu.au/contact/online.htm.

Visit our website at www.tafensw.edu.au.